

WESTSIDE-EASTSIDE ROAD | AN EXPLORATION IN RUSSIAN RIVER AND ANDERSON VALLEY PINOT NOIR AND CHARDONNAY

The Russian River Valley in Sonoma County and the Anderson Valley in Mendocino County are renowned for producing stunning Pinot Noirs and expressive cool-climate Chardonnays. Copain, Gary Farrell and Arista have teamed up to provide you with a terroir tour showcasing the distinctive flavors and characteristics that exist between these two regions, as well as from vineyard to vineyard within the same region. In between tastings, savor the scenic journey along Westside and Eastside roads as they meander through breathtaking vineyards along the banks of the Russian River.

PART III EXPLORING TERROIR | 3:00pm – 4:00pm

Sonoma and Mendocino counties resound as some of the most idyllic viticultural expanses for Pinot Noir and Chardonnay in the world. Yet, Pinot and Chard lovers should note, each vineyard and growing region will exhibit totally distinct flavors and characteristics. With the arrangement Arista has crafted for their guests as part of this experience, you'll learn to recognize subtleties and nuances which are directly linked to terroir. You will be seated on their Mezzanine overlooking one of their five estate vineyards while their private host guides you through the wines and the unique attributes that each appellation boasts. The flight will as well be enhanced by small bites from Arista's Executive Chef, Timothy Kaulfers.

Arista Winery was founded by the McWilliams family in 2002 with a mission to create the most elegant expression of Russian River Valley Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. The winery is committed to sustainable farming practices of its estate vineyards and works closely with local growers who share their dedication to sustainability in their own vineyards. Today, winemaker Matt Courtney crafts small-lot, site-driven wines that are deliciously balanced with fruit, tannins, acidity and oak in harmonious proportion. In addition to their wines, the winery has created a true destination experience for its visitors through a breathtaking setting of Japanese water gardens, mountain and vineyard vistas and culinary program for visitors to their Westside Road and Russian River Valley estate.
